Prepare for an Unforgettable Literary Adventure

Battle Born is an extraordinary novel that delves into the depths of human experience, exploring the complexities of combat, the unbreakable bonds of camaraderie, and the profound impact of war on the human psyche.

Patrick McLahan, a decorated combat veteran, pens this gripping tale with an authenticity and depth that few can match.

A Soldier's Journey of Courage and Loss

The novel follows the journey of Sergeant First Class Mike Banning, a highly decorated Green Beret who returns home from Afghanistan carrying a heavy burden of both physical and emotional wounds. As he struggles to readjust to civilian life, Mike grapples with the haunting memories of combat and their devastating consequences.

Haunted by the death of a fellow soldier and plagued by nightmares, Mike battles the demons of PTSD, isolating himself from society and his loved ones. His marriage crumbles, and he finds himself spiraling down a path of self-destruction.

Redemption and the Power of Connection

But even in the darkest of times, hope emerges. Through a chance encounter with a fellow veteran, Mike begins to find a path towards healing. Together, they embark on a harrowing journey to rediscover their purpose, rebuild their lives, and find solace in the bonds of brotherhood.

As Mike confronts his past and confronts his inner demons, he uncovers the true meaning of courage, resilience, and the transformative power of human connection. Battle Born is a novel that stays with readers long after they turn the final page.

A Must-Read for Fans of Literary Fiction and War Narratives

With its unflinching realism, lyrical prose, and deeply resonant characters, Battle Born is a must-read for fans of literary fiction and war narratives. Patrick McLahan deftly interweaves themes of war, trauma, loss, and redemption, creating a tapestry that is both profoundly moving and thought-provoking.
