Harvey is a lovable and quirky frog who always has a positive attitude. In Harvey Takes the Lead, he learns the importance of taking initiative and helping others. This charming story is perfect for young readers who are learning about leadership and teamwork.

One day, Harvey is playing in the forest when he comes across a group of frogs who are struggling to move a large log. Harvey immediately jumps in to help, and with his strength and determination, he is able to move the log out of the way. The other frogs are so grateful for Harvey's help, and they tell him that he is a natural leader.

Harvey is surprised to hear this, but he is also proud. He realizes that he has a gift for helping others, and he is determined to use it to make a difference in the world. Harvey starts by organizing a group of frogs to help clean up the forest. Together, they pick up trash, plant trees, and make the forest a more beautiful place for everyone.

Harvey's leadership inspires other frogs to step up and help out. Soon, the entire forest is working together to make it a better place. Harvey is proud of what he has accomplished, and he knows that he will continue to use his leadership skills to make the world a better place.

Harvey Takes the Lead is a heartwarming story about the importance of leadership and teamwork. This charming book is perfect for young readers who are learning about these important concepts.
