Preparing Your Child for the Preschool Transition

As your child approaches preschool age, it's important to start preparing them for the transition. Here are a few tips:

- Visit the preschool: Take your child to visit their preschool before their first day to familiarize them with the environment and staff.
- Talk about preschool: Discuss what preschool is like, what they will learn, and who they will meet to alleviate any anxieties.
- Practice routines: Help your child get used to preschool routines, such as packing their lunch, putting on their shoes, and following instructions.
- Build independence: Encourage your child to do things for themselves, such as dressing, washing their hands, and using the toilet, to foster their self-confidence.
- Foster social skills: Provide opportunities for your child to interact with other children in playgroups or social settings to develop their social and communication skills.

By following these tips, you can help your child feel confident and prepared for their preschool adventure.
