Book Excerpt

Geronimo Stilton peeked over the edge of his desk at the mysterious message that had arrived at his office. The parchment was old and yellowed, and the writing was faded and difficult to read.

"Dear Geronimo," the message began. "I have a secret that could change the fate of Mouse Island forever. Meet me at the Whispering Woods at midnight. Come alone."

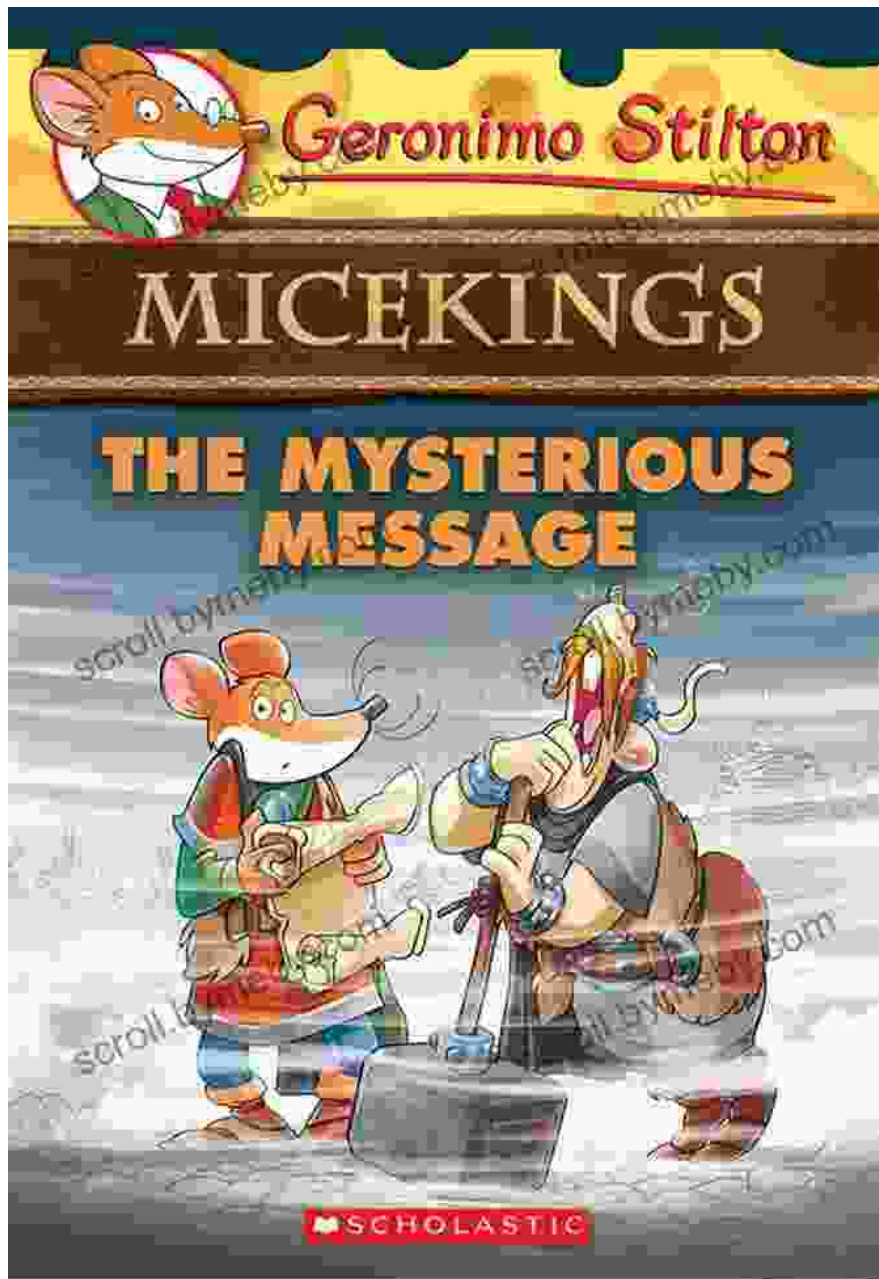

Geronimo's heart skipped a beat. A secret that could change the fate of Mouse Island? What could it be? And who had sent this mysterious message?

A wave of excitement and trepidation washed over Geronimo. He knew he had to find out what this secret was. But he also knew that it could be dangerous.

Taking a deep breath, Geronimo rolled up the message and tucked it into his pocket. He grabbed his trusty flashlight and headed out into the night.
